

Finally!!! I'm able to serve dinner and sit down with my family. I used to have to keep getting up to get the phone only to find there is someone on the other end who knows about what credit card I use or phone service I have. Let's keep the do not call list. My children can actually talk to us at dinner and we can listen.